

Women's Career Day

Keynote Speech and Get-together

“Gender, Neo-liberalism and
Research in the Global
Knowledge Economy“

with Prof. Louise Morley

Centre for Higher Education and Equity
Research(CHEER), University of Sussex, UK

Keynote Speech

“Gender, Neo-liberalism and
Research in the Global
Knowledge Economy“

18 February 2016, 6 p.m.

CFEL, Campus Bahrenfeld, building 99,
SR II+III,
Notkestr. 85, 22607 Hamburg

Registration

www.pier-hamburg.de/wcd2016

Neoliberalism underpins the global academy, where research is economised and financialised, and knowledge is valued for its commercial, market, and financial benefits. As neoliberalism casts people as human capital who must constantly tend to their own present and future value, Prof. Louise Morley asks if this neoliberalisation of research has different consequences for women and men. Does it reinforce gendered binaries of winners and losers in the global knowledge economy?